

SD8 Trades Training Tuition Model 2023-2024

Program	Student funded for...	Family covers...	Other Supports
Youth Train in Trades Programs:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Foundation (full-time college program) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tuition only covered by SD8 for eligible, ungraduated students in Grade 12 Students who wish to take Trades Training Foundation program after their year of graduation must cover tuition and ancillary costs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> College registration ($40) Textbooks ($600+) Tool Deposits ($200+) Health Insurance (as required) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Contact your school Principal or Vice-Principal or Trades Training Coordinator Contact your SD8 Trades Training Coordinator for additional supports
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Apprentice Level 1 (short-term college program) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tuition only covered by SD8 for eligible, ungraduated students in Grade 12 Students who wish to take Train in Trades AP-L1 after their year of graduation must cover tuition and ancillary costs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Any remaining costs as above 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Contact your school Principal or Vice-Principal or Trades Training Coordinator Contact your Trades Training Coordinator for additional supports
Youth Work in Trades (Community apprenticeship work placement)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No tuition 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> n/a (possibly work boots) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 900 hours & C+ average in Grade 12, plus all 4 YWT courses = $1000 ITA Award upon completion (direct to student)
Youth Trades Sampler (partial college, partial school)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tuition 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Workboots and clothing 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Contact your school Principal or Vice-Principal

Reminder: Students must graduate and complete their Trades Training Program within their normally designated graduating year in order to receive supplementary tuition funding from SD8 Kootenay Lake. Students who withdraw or are withdrawn from the program may be asked to reimburse a portion of the tuition paid by the District. Students experiencing financial barriers please contact the SD8 Trades Training Coordinator at youth.trades@sd8.bc.ca